

THE CHARMS...

- "Heroes And Villains" is the fifth release by The Charms. The band returned to legendary Detroit producer Jim Diamond (Von Bondies, Electric Six) to record five of the tracks and worked with Boston's own Paul Santo (Aerosmith, Ringo Starr) on the sixth. The results are a wonderful and fitting end to an era in which the band flourished as part of the new garage rock movement. "Heroes And Villains" with the inclusion of "How Can You Break A Heart" takes the band into new territory. Therefore this may be the end, but it is also a new beginning.
- * The Charms' new cd Strange Magic (2007, Wicked Cool Records) was produced by Jim Diamond (White Stripes, Von Bondies). It is available nationwide in stores and online. Strange Magic has been in the CMJ top 100 for 8 weeks.
- * The song So Romantic in USA TODAY's Top 10 tracks
- * The song Gimme That Shot was recently featured in the script of ABC Family's Lincoln Heights.
- * VH1's Cheap Trick or Treat Halloween Ball included a live set by The Charms. Now airing on HDTV.
- * The Charms have toured the U.S. with The New York Dolls, Supersuckers, The Romantics, Ian Hunter, and The Zombies and have also played with The Stooges, Cheap Trick, Blondie, The Strokes, The D4, Public Enemy, The Troggs, Electric Six, The Raveonettes, Rocket From the Crypt, Kay Hanley, Mates of State & more...
- * Pussycat the #1 CD of 2005 on Little Steven's Underground Garage (syndicated on 170 stations and Sirius satellite radio), Teenage Wasteland (WFMU), and Whole Lotta Shakin (WITR)
- * The song Pussycat featured in National TV and Radio spots for the movie Broken Flowers
- * MTV's hit TV shows My Super Sweet 16 and Made feature many Charms songs. The Charms were the featured artist of episode #509 of Made.
- * Recorded Frosty The Snowman (produced by Little Steven) for the major motion picture and soundtrack of Christmas With the Kranks

- * Gimme That Shot video aired on Rage TV on the CW Network (formerly WB56) in Boston
- * Saturday, from the Charms' debut cd, included in the trailer for Disney film The Ice Princess
- * So Pretty spent 7 straight weeks on the CMJ charts in 2004
- * MTV aired live footage of The Charms performing at Irving Plaza in NYC as special guests at the finals of the Underground Garage Battle of the Bands

Represented by Stev Riccardo
Twisted Rico Management
www.twistedrico.com
602 687 9002

Heroes and Villains

released winter 2007 on Red Car Records
6 song EP produced by Jim Diamond and Paul Santo

"Totally cute Boston garage-and-soul-organged glam-metal pop, slavering over "boys in town" like the early Divinyls."

-CHUCK EDDY,
THE VILLAGE VOICE

"Smart and edgy, punk-ish and endearingly bitchy, Boston-grown garage rockers the Charms craft memorable tunes on Strange Magic....It's truly refreshing to hear music this raw and playful created by folks who can actually (gasp!) tear it up on their respective instruments."

-MICHAEL GALLANT,
KEYBOARD MAGAZINE

Wish they still wrote songs like What I Like About You? Boston garage-punks the Charms do."

-KEN BARNES, USA TODAY

"The Charms take the listener on a trip few bands would have the raw nerve or talent to do. If more garage rock could be written with this kind of intelligence and grassroots aesthetic behind it, we'd have more cars sleeping outside in favor of instruments, amps and bulldozing vocals."

-LEN SOUZA, NORTHEAST PERFORMER

THECHARMS.NET
MYSFACE.COM/CHARMS